

Archaeological tour of Ljubljana, of the Ljubljana City Museum and of the National Museum of Slovenia – Lapidarium (3 h)

A trail through the center of Ljubljana tracing the 2000-year-old heritage of colonia Iulia Emona. The trail leads the visitor through 13 sites of the colony dating from the 1st to the 6th century CE (a Roman domus, Emona's first baptistery, Roman town-wall etc.). It includes the visit of the Ljubljana City Museum and ends in the Lapidarium of the National Museum of Slovenia.

For the description of the tour cf.

<https://www.ljubljana.si/assets/Uploads/publication/18729/Portret-mesta-Emona.pdf>

For some reconstructions of the sites cf. <https://mgml.si/en/city-museum/exhibitions/263/archaeological-park-emona/>

For more information about Emona cf.

https://www.academia.edu/7407861/2014_Prehistoric_and_Roman_Emona_A_Guide_through_the_Archaeological_Past_of_the_Ljubljanas_Predecessor